BUTTE CURRENT NOTES.

Mrs. James Hier of Marceline, Mo., is risiting friends in the city. Mrs. T. G. Davis of Araconda is visiting Mrs. V. S. Rider and Mrs. H. S. Kenney of Centerville.

About 25 Sons of Veterans of Butte went over to Helena to the national encampment yesterday.

Born-A 15-pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Berriman yesterday at Butchertown.

August 27 the Union Pacific will run an excursion to Salt Lake for which a round trip fare of $20 will be made.

Captain Niedenhofen leaves this morn-ing for the Flathead country, where he will rusticate for a couple of weeks. The Walkerville city council met yester-day morning and fixed the tax levy for the year at 3 mills, the same as last year.

Prof. A. L. Dickerman, geologist on the Northern Pacific company, accompanied by his family, passed through the city yes-terday en route to the West.

A miner at the Mountain Con. came very near being blown up by a delayed blast yesterday. As it was his head was badly cut by pieces of fixing rock and one of his ankles was badly sprained. His injuries are not at all serious, however, and he will be out of the hospital in a short time.

Mrs. T. P. Hughes has resigned her position as directress of St. Patrick's church choir and leaves to-day for Adams, Mass., where she will visit with her parents about Rev. J. J. McAllister of Stevensville. Rev. J. J. McAllister of Stevensville, who has been attending the Anaconda conference, arrived in the city yesterday en route home. Since the reverend gentleman's removal from Butte he has grown to be an enthusiastic fisherman, but his calling prevents him from telling any real fishing stories. This part of the enjoyment and pleasure of angling he leaves to members of his congregation.

Workingmen's Piente.

BUTTE, Aug. 8.—The third annual pienic of the Butte Workingmen's union will be held at Columbia gardens next Sunday. There will be an excellent programme of amusements, including a 103-yard foot race, jumping, wheelbarrow race, threerace, jumping, whoelbarrow race, three-legged race, sack race for boys, putting the shot, double trapeze and rope walk-ing. Good prizes will be given in all of the above contests. There will be a splen-did musical programme. The pienics of the Butte Workingmen's union have al-ways been most enjoyable and the com-mittee this time will outdo itself.

RULED OFF THE TRACK

Charges of Jobbery Against Epperson, the Well-Known Jockey.

FAVORITES AGAIN NOT IN IT

Nadly the Only One That Didn't Disappoint Her Backers-The Half Mile Run Declared Off.

BUTTE, Aug. 8.—There were very good races at the track to-day, the mile and an eighth run being one of the best running races of the meeting thus far, while the 2:29 class trot was of great interest to all. Nadjy and Leap Year were expected to have a very hot battle, as they did a week ago, but Leap Year did not seem in it with Nadjy to-day and left the battle to Almont Medium. After Nadjy had won two straight heats it began to look as though she might be beaten by tiring as she was week ago, but she came to the front nobly in the fourth heat, winning the race.

The favorites were beaten all day, except in the 2:29 class trot, when Nadjy won. The greatest downfail was when Zora beat out the favorites, giving her backers in the neighborhood of $100 for an investment of about $10. Mutuals on her raid $8.8.25. The last race of the day, the backers in the neighborhood of $109 for an investment of about $10. Mutuals on her paid $58.25. The last race of the day, the half mile run, was spoiled by too much jockeying. Epperson backed Fidaigo for the race very heavily, and leased Manhattan to help Fidalgo win, riding Manhattan himself. Another curious thing in the race was that Fortune, owner of Later On, was riding Little Joe, who came first under the wire. The jockeys were very much in earnest, and were in a group all the way around. It was claimed by Tom Bowling's rider that Epperson on Manhattan hit him with his whip and pulled the bridle of Tom Bowling to keep him from winning. The judges took the testimony of the jockeys, and this left no doubt that there had been plenty of fouling and bad riding. So the race was declared off and Epperson was ruled off the course.

The day's sport opened with the 2-vear-old colt race for which Primrose sold favorite at $20 to $47 for Montana Kate had the pole. The efforts of the colts to start together were laughable. When they finally got off, Suffolk broke badly and remained far behind through the heat, Montana Kate took the lead and held it to the five-eighths pole, when Primrose passed her. Montana Kate recovered what she had lost, however, caught Primrose in the home

Mon-tana Kate recovered what she had lost, however, caught Primrose in the home stretch and would have won the heat but that she person. that she began galloping a few yards from the wire and came past the stand in that fashion. paid $11.49.

Primrose now sold for $20 to $10 for Montana Kate. Primrose broke directly after the start and again at the three-eighths pole. Montana Kate kept the lead, winning by four lengths in 2:54. Mutuals paid $12.15.

Primrose was still favorite at odds of $20 to $18. Montana Kate got the lead and Primrose repeated his performance of the last heat by breaking badly just after, the start, Montana Kate was an easy winner by 50 yards. Mutuals paid $11.65.

tion as directress of St. Patrick's church choir and leaves to-day for Adams, Mass, where she will visit with her parents about three weeks. At the expiration of that time she will sail for Florence, Italy, where she will spend the winter in the study of vocal culture.

Assistant Fire Chief Cameron received the intelligence of the sudden death of his father at his home at Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin. Mr. Cameron had not seen his father in more than seven years, and the fact that sickness at home prevents him from attending the funeral makes the blow doubly severe.

W. J. Footner, general manager of the Great Northern Express company, and W. A. Naylor, general superintendent of the American Express company, were in the city yesterday. The object of their visit was to close up some matters in connection with the recent change made by which the Great Northern succeeds the American in Montana.

For the 2.22 class trot, Nadjy sold favorday services as a second service services.

Timé, 1:57%.
For the 2:30 class trot, Nadjy sold favorite at from $15 to $30, Leap year selling at from $15 to $35, and the field at $13 to $21, the field including Robbins and Almont Medium. Almont Medium had the pole, Nadjy second and Leap Year outside. It was difficult to get the horses started on account of the bad actions of Almont, Finally they got away with the pole horse behind, Nadjy going rapidly to the front. Robbins closed in behind Nadjy and these horses made the race for the heat, Leap Year apparently holding back and nursing himself for a long race. Coming into the homestretch be had to run to save his distance, Nadjy took the heat easily in 2:27½. Mutuals paid $8.45.

Nadjy now sold at $40 to $21 for Leap Year and $21 for the field. The start was made with Robbins slightly leading, but Nadjy went to the front by turning first, Robbins broke at the eighth and fell to the rear, Leap Year gliding into second place. Leap Year did not seem inclined to press Nadjy very bard, and at the half nile yielded second place to Almont Medium to press Nadjy. But Nadjy walked away from Almont, Leap Year troited slowly and at the turn into the home stretch ran for a long distance and gained second place once more but was set back to fourth place for running.

trotted slowly and at the turn into the home stretch ran for a long distance and gained second place once more but was set back to fourth place for running. Nadly wen the heat easily in 2:28½. Mutuals paid $8.15.

It was Nadly against the field now, and the odds were $20 to $7. The start was made with the four horses abreast. Robbins broke in turning, and immediately afterward Nadly broke for the first time in the race. She had scarcely got her feet when she broke again and fell back to last place. Leap Year went to the front, with Robbins second. But Nadly quickly got her gait once more, and could trot much faster than any of the others. She passed Almont at the quarter and passed Robbins and Leap Year at the three-eighths. She held the lead into the home stretch, although Leap Year at the three-eighths. She held the lead into the home stretch, although Leap Year as whipped unmercifully. Almont came into second place at the seven-eighths and came to the wire with his head at Nadjy's wheel. Thirty yards from the wire Nadjy broke and then lost the heat, although fluishing first. Almont won the heat. Mutuals paid $13.

Before the fourth heat Nadjy sold at $25 to $20 for Almont Medium and $10 for the

The last race was a half mile run. Fidalgo sold favorite at $40 and $15 for the field. $7 for Later On and $5 for Little Joe. The field included Tom Bowling and Manhattan. The horses from the start to the wire were in a bunch and galloped un der the wire all abreast, but Little Joe with head and shoulders in front of the bunch. Paddock Gossip. Andy McDowell finishes in fine style. Nadjy will be a great horse next year. Epperson does not seem to know when he is well off.

There was $25,000 went through the pool boxes yesterday.

Bustellos is a great jockey. He won two running races yesterday, the only ones in which he rode.

There were several rival mutual cashers on the field yesterday. They cashed mutual tickets at a slight discount, to save a long wait at the box office. They did a good business until the race when mutuals paid $58.25, and then they quickly ran out of cash.

The band changed its location to the grand stand early in the afternoon and its splendid music was greatly appreciated. Later, when the stand became crowded, the boys had to move to their old stand, which is too far off for fine music to be appreciated.

Kenney went through the High Ore mine Sunday. The boys gave him a ride in the cage that he will remember as long as he lives. The cage made 600 feet in five seconds and Kenney says he would not take the ride again for the best race horse in America.

In the first four mutuals yesterday the man who invested $5 in each mutual would have come out ahead. It is a pretty good way of betting some times. The mutuals way of betting some times. The mutuals paid respectively $11.49, $12.15, $11.65 and $20.80 and in each case $10 would have bought both the favorite and the field.

Some who bet on the field in the fourth heat of the 2:29 trot, kicked at the judges' decision in awarding that heat to Nadjy. All spectators who had no money at stake thought the judges decided right. While Nadjy broke twice she was caught so cleverly by Andy McDowell that she only made a couple of skips and certainly gained nothing. Nadjy was clearly the best horse in the race.

BUTTE FOR THE CAPITAL. Hig Mass Meeting Will Be Held on Thursday Evening.

BUTTE, Aug. 8.—The committee ap-pointed to compile statistics and reasons why Butte should have the capital met again to-night and are getting up an array of facts and figures that will make interesting reading to the people of Montana. The committee on arrangements has decided to hold the great mass meeting on Thursday evening, in front of the court house. The yards will be filled with chairs for the ladies and there will be standing room for all the remainder of the town's inhabitants. A band has been engaged for the occasion and a number of speakers, among them Mayor Mantle, W. A. Clark, Frank E. Corbett, James W. Forbis, D. J. Hennessy, John Maguire, John W. Cotter, Pat Boland, M. L. Wines and O. W. Speer and probably some others. There will be some interesting speeches made. But for the capital enthusiasm is still increasing and the piedges and petitions are receiving hundreds of signatures yet. They contain now over 2,000 names, among them a number of visitors who have been in Butte from Missoula, Deer Lodge, Livingston and other towns in the state. The committee on arrangements has de

ONLY A QUIET GAME.

Its ferenity Disturbed by a Pistol

BUTTE, Aug. 8 .- A "quiet little game" which was in progress in John Shea's sa-loon in Dublin gulch came to an abrupt and decidedly exciting end. Mike Kenneally was interested in the game in some manner and got into a quarrel with Shea. The exact facts were unobtainable, but at any rate a shot was fired and Shea fired it, a fact he acknowledges himself, but as it, a fact he acknowledges himself, but as to the exact object he sought to accomplish by firing the shot opinions differ. Kenneally solemnly avers that he was the target for Shea's gun, while Shea with equal solemnity vows that he discharged the weapon in the air for the purpose of attracting the attention of a policeman, as he wanted Kenneally arrested for threatening to smash him with a glass. In this, however, he failed, because Kenneally instantly ran down town in search of an officer. The first one whom he met wore a star numbered 12 and to him he complained that Shea had attempted to kill him. But Officer 12 said that before he could arrest a man on that charge he would have to see the chief. Kenneally did not wait, but continued to run until reached the city hall, where he met Officer Waters of the day force who went with him. When they arrived at the saloon they found Officers Coulter and Christensen there and to even up matters the policemen arrested both Shea and Kenneally on a charge of disturbing the peace. Rice de Guer'n and His Sister. Five years before the volume containing the journal, letters and poems of Maurice de Guerin was published, the public had learned to know his sister Eugenie with delight in her wonderful letters. Indeed, Sainte-Beuve thought her genius equal, if not superior, to her brother's; but Matthew Arnold, to whom the English-speaking world is indebted for a first introduction to the brother, says: "No one has a more profound respect for M. Sainte-Beuve's critical judgments than I have; but it seems to me that this particular judgment needs to be a little explained and guarded. In Maurice's special talent which was a talent for intercial talent, which was a talent for inter-preting nature, for finding words which incomparably render the subtilest impression which nature makes upon us, which bring the intimate life of nature wonderfully near to us, it seems to me that his sister was by no means his equal. She never, indeed, expresses herself without grace and intelligence: but her words, when she speaks of the life and appearances of nature, are in general but intellectual signs—they are not like her brother's, symbols equivalent with the thing symbolized."—August Scribner.
